In an enterprise increasingly filled with upheaval and uncertainty, NC State Football has become known for its consistency and culture, thanks to head coach Dave Doeren. As he enters his 14th season leading the Wolfpack, Doeren continues to successfully navigate the changes in his sport by never wavering from the mantra he introduced on his first day in Raleigh: 1 Pack. 1 Goal.

Doeren's goal remains helping the young men entrusted to his leadership to develop on and off the field, starting with the core tenet of team over individual - the Pack over the lone wolf. His hope is that one day, these men enjoy success as players, husbands, fathers, leaders, and citizens.

Wolfpack Football under Doeren has become known for hard working, gritty, blue-collar players and that culture has paid off with success. He has led the Wolfpack to 95 victories – the highest total in school history. He boasts the second-longest tenure in the ACC and the fourth-longest in the FBS and has guided NC State to at least eight wins in seven of the last nine seasons, with four nine-win campaigns in that time.

Since 2020, Doeren's Wolfpack ranks second in the ACC in overall victories (48) and is tied for second in conference wins (30) and 11 of his 13 Wolfpack squads have qualified for postseason bowls - the most of any coach in program history.

Between 2017-25, 23 of his players were drafted by the NFL - including an ACC-best seven in 2017. Three of his players have gone on to be first-round picks, including OT Ikem Ekwonu in 2022, C Garrett Bradbury in 2019 and DE Bradley Chubb in 2018.

The Wolfpack has boasted 84 Academic All-ACC performers under his guidance - including a program-high 13 in 2022 - and in 2018 had a player named to the prestigious NFF National Scholar-Athlete Team.

Five of his players have won seven national awards. Bradley Chubb won the Nagurski Trophy and the Hendricks Award in 2017, Garrett Bradbury was the recipient of the 2019 Rimington Trophy, and in 2022, Christopher Dunn won the Lou Groza Award. In 2023 LB Payton Wilson brought home the Butkus and Bednarik Awards while long snapper Joe Shimko won the Patrick Mannelly Award. He has coached two ACC Defensive Players of the Year and an ACC Rookie of the Year.

Despite a rash of injuries on the defensive side of the ball, the 2025 Wolfpack won four of its last five games, including a win over a top 10 team and a victory in the Pack's sixth-straight bowl. His squad also defeated UNC for the fifth consecutive season, tying for the Pack's longest winning streak in series history. For the first time since 1997, an NC State player - Hollywood Smothers - led the ACC in rushing while second-team All-American Caden Fordham led the league in tackles. The Pack offense ranked in the top 30 nationally in five different categories.

In 2024, the Wolfpack qualified for its fifth-straight bowl game and talented true freshman quarterback CJ Baily came in and posted some of the top numbers in the country for a rookie.

In 2023, the Wolfpack won five straight league games (for the first time in 50 years) to close the season and qualify for the Pop-Tarts Bowl in Orlando. Doeren's defense ranked in the top 25 nationally in 10 different categories and the Pack finished 18th in the final CFP rankings.

Over the 2020, '21 and '22 seasons, the Wolfpack won 16 straight home games, tying as the longest home winning streak in school history. The 2021 squad became the first since 1986 (35 years!) to go undefeated at home and one of just six teams in school history to post an unblemished record at Carter-Finley Stadium.

The 2022 Wolfpack team was the first since 1980 not to give up more than 30 points in a game all season and the Wolfpack was the only Power 5 team to accomplish that feat in 2022. Injuries forced the Wolfpack to start four different players at the quarterback spot, with each of the four earning a victory that season.

Wolfpack fans stormed the field twice in 2021, as Doeren's Pack knocked off ninth-ranked Clemson in double overtime and then scored 13 points in 95 seconds to knock off visiting UNC and close out the regular season. The Pack was poised for its 10th win of the season in the SDCCU Holiday Bowl before a game-day cancellation by UCLA shocked the nation. Still, NC State's final rankings (18th in CFP, 20th in AP) were the program's highest since 2002.

In 2021, with five new coaches on staff (not to mention a global pandemic), the Wolfpack made one of the most impressive turnarounds in college football, posting an 8-4 record and earning the sixth bowl bid of his Wolfpack tenure. Doeren led his resilient squad to seven ACC victories - a new school record.

That successful campaign followed a season that saw the Wolfpack decimated by injuries with seven players (including five starters) lost for the season. Because of injuries, a Power 5 conference-leading 45 players started games in 2019 and the Pack played the nation's second-highest total of freshmen.

With nine victories, the 2018 Wolfpack was one of just six teams in the 126-year history of NC State football to post nine or more regular season wins. It marked the first time since 1991-92 that NC State had posted back-to-back nine-win seasons and was only the third time in school history that had been accomplished.

The Wolfpack boasted an ACC-best six first-team all-conference performers in 2018 and became the first team in school history to place two wide receivers on the first team.

His 2017 squad posted nine wins for the season, including a 6-2 mark in the ACC - the most in 23 years. The squad finished the year with a resounding win in the Hyundai Sun Bowl.

In 2016, while facing a daunting schedule, his squad won three of its last four games, including a win at rival UNC and an Independence Bowl victory over SEC opponent Vanderbilt. Four of the squad's losses in 2016, including two to ranked teams, were by seven points of less.

In 2015, Doeren took one of the nation's youngest teams and went to battle against three teams that ended the regular season ranked in the top 10. NC State won four road games in 2015, more than any Wolfpack squad since 2002. No other State team has turned in more road victories since 1957. The team posted numbers on offense and special teams that were among the top marks in school history.

In 2014, his second year as the head coach at NC State, his team was the second-most improved in the Power 5 conferences. The Wolfpack more than doubled its win total from the previous season, earned a bowl victory and posted its highest team GPA in program history.

The 2014 Wolfpack squad was only the second in school history to score 40 or more points in five regular season games and posted its best rushing average since 1992. Despite the tough league schedule in 2015, the team posted four 40+ point games and an almost identical rushing output.

Doeren came to NC State after leading the program at Northern Illinois to the most successful two years in program history. His first Husky squad won the school's first Mid-American Conference Championship since 1983 and tied the school record with 11 wins. His second version repeated as league champions and set a new school record by posting 12 victories for the season and earned a trip to the Orange Bowl - the first BCS berth ever for a MAC school. Doeren was a finalist for several national coach of the year awards following the 2012 campaign.

Under Doeren's leadership, NIU boasted the nation's longest conference winning streak with 17 straight wins versus MAC opponents. The Huskies never lost a home game during his tenure in DeKalb, winning a dozen home contests in his two seasons to extend the nation's longest home winning streak to 21 games.

* - Team competed in Orange Bowl after Doeren was named head coach at NC State; ^ -
* The Wolfpack qualified for the 2021 SDCCU Holiday Bowl, but its opponent backed out on game day.

Doeren grew up right outside of Kansas City, where he watched his grandfather, Thomas Glennon, coach high school basketball and track. He loved the respect his grandfather commanded from his players, even after he retired from coaching.

When he left for college at Drake University in Des Moines, Iowa, his goals were to play football, earn a pre-med degree, go to med school and become an orthopedic doctor. He accomplished the first two.

He lettered at tight end for the Bulldogs, catching 19 catches for 237 yards for his career. He majored in pre-medical biology, earning Academic All-America honors as a senior. He took the Medical College Admission Test (MCAT). His plans for the future changed, however, during the summer between his junior and senior years when his former coach at Bishop Miege High School asked him to lead seven-on-seven drills.

From that moment on, he decided he wanted to be a coach. He pursued that goal with a relentlessness that never wavered. Instead of heading to med school, he landed his first coaching job in 1994, right there in Kansas at Shawnee Mission Northwest High School. His collegiate coaching career began just a year later, when he was named an assistant coach at Drake, leading the linebackers from 1995-97 before adding defensive coordinator chores in 1997. He also earned his master's degree from Drake in educational leadership.

Doeren got his first taste of a bowl experience as a defensive graduate assistant at the University of Southern California. During his stint with the Trojans, he began work on his Ph.D.

Doeren met his wife Sara while he was coaching at Drake and she was a nursing student. The couple has three sons: Jacob, Luke and Connor (19).

Prior to his stint in DeKalb, Doeren spent five seasons in the Big Ten at Wisconsin, where he served as defensive coordinator and linebackers coach. During Doeren's time in Madison, the Badgers posted a 49-15 overall mark and played in the Champs Sports Bowl twice, the Outback Bowl, the Capital One Bowl and the Rose Bowl.

For his first two seasons with the Badgers, he served as co-defensive coordinator/recruiting coordinator/linebackers coach and in 2008, was named the primary defensive coordinator.

Doeren arrived at Wisconsin after four seasons (2002-05) at the University of Kansas, where he served as linebackers coach and recruiting coordinator for three seasons before being promoted to co-defensive coordinator under head coach Mark Mangino.

During Doeren's time at Kansas, the Jayhawks ended a seven-year bowl drought, earning bids to the 2003 Tangerine Bowl and the 2005 Ft. Worth Bowl. The opponent in that first bowl appearance was a Philip Rivers-led NC State team.

In 2000 and 2001, Doeren coached the secondary at NCAA Division I-AA (now Football Championship Subdivision) powerhouse Montana, also serving as the Grizzlies' recruiting coordinator for one year. Montana advanced to the I-AA national championship game in 2000, losing by two points, but returned to win the national title the following season. The Grizzlies posted a 28-3 record and won two Big Sky Conference championships in his two years with the program and he coached five All-Americans, four All-Big Sky performers and two league defensive MVPs.

Vaughn spent the 2018 season at Arizona, where he was the Wildcats' senior director of recruiting and high school relations. Prior to Arizona, he spent three years at Nebraska as director of recruiting, where he was responsible for spearheading all aspects of the Cornhuskers football program related to recruiting. During his tenure with the Huskers, their recruiting classes improved in the national rankings from 30th in 2015 to 23rd in 2017.

From 2012-2014, Vaughn served as the University of Nevada's Director of Player Personnel. He arrived at Nevada after a successful four-year run at Middle Tennessee State, where he was the Coordinator of Player Personal. At MTSU, Vaughn's duties included all NCAA compliance-related activities for the Blue Raider football program, assisting the recruiting coordinator in all phases of the day-to-day planning and execution, and overseeing all football camp activities.

A South Carolina native, Vaughn was on the staff at Clemson in 2005, where he served as an Assistant for Football Ops, assisting in administrative operations, travel logistics, recruiting, and community relations.

Vaughn was also a member of the Clemson staff in 2003 as a Recruiting Assistant. During both tenures at Clemson, Vaughn helped the Tigers land nationally ranked top-25 recruiting classes.

Prior to joining the Clemson staff, Vaughn was a member of the football team at North Greenville University, where he was part of the first bowl team in school history.

He earned a degree in sport management and business administration from North Greenville University in 2003. He also has a master's degree in physical education and sports administration from Florida State University (2005).

Vaughn and his wife, Jahna, have a son, Brayden, and a daughter, Kennedy.

CHARLEY WILES

Director of HIgh School Relations

Charley Wiles moved into the position of Director of High School Relations for the Wolfpack in the spring of 2026. Wiles brings four decades of collegiate football experience to the role.

Wiles, who coached on teams that advanced to 30 bowl games in his career, led the defensive line under Dave Doeren from 2020-25. The Wolfpack ranked in the top 25 in 10 defensive categories in 2023 and led the ACC in scoring defense and passing efficiency defense in 2022. Defensive tackle Cory Durden was named a first-team All-ACC selection in his first season with the Pack and is now playing for the New England Patriots.

The 2021 NC State defense ranked second in the ACC in scoring defense (19.7 points), third in total defense (331.6 yards), third in rushing defense (124.0 yards). Wiles also coached All-ACC performer/second-team AP All-American Alim McNeill, who is enjoying a successful career with the Detroit Lions.

WIles came to NC State after 24 years leading the defensive line for Frank Beamer's "Lunch Pail" defense, becoming just the second person to be honored by receiving a lunch pail. During his tenure, the Hokies registered 893 sacks, the highest total of any team in the nation over that span.

Virginia Tech forced an FBS-best 394 interceptions during his stint in Blacksburg. In 2017, Tech led all FBS squads, limiting opponents to a completion percentage of just 48.60 percent.

Under Wiles' tutelage, 26 different Virginia Tech defensive linemen earned all-conference honors and twice he coached a conference Player of the Year. The Hokies had 24 consecutive teams earn bowl berths. That run included the 1999 National Championship Game, two BIG EAST championships and four ACC titles.

He coached five individuals to seven All-America honors at Virginia Tech: Cornell Brown (1995 & 1996), Corey Moore (1998 & 1999), John Engelberger (1999), Darryl Tapp (2005) and David Pugh (2001). Moore won the Lombardi and Nagurski Awards in 1999 and was the first VT defender ever to be named a unanimous All-American. Coached two NFL second-round draft picks: Engleberger (SF – 2000) and DE Jason Worilds (Pittsburgh – 2010) and he has coached multiple players who went on to play professionally.

The Hokies tied for the national lead with 58.0 sacks and advanced to the national championship game in 1999. The Sporting News labeled the VT defensive front as the best in college football that season.

Prior to his time in Blacksburg, Wiles coached at his alma mater, Murray State, from 1990-95 under Beamer. In 1995, helped lead the Racers to an 11-0 regular-season mark and a berth in the Division I-AA playoffs.
He played offensive line for Beamer at Murray State from 1983-86, winning Kodak Division I-AA All-America honors in 1986.

Wiles arned his degree in communication from Murray State in 1987 and an MSED from Virginia Tech in 1989.

He and his wife, Andi, are parents of a son, Eric, and a daughter, Kendell, who ran track at Indiana.

KEVIN HOWELL

CHANCELLOR

Kevin Howell became NC State University's 15th chancellor in May 2025. He leads the largest university in North Carolina, with about 39,000 students.

Howell previously served as chief of external affairs for UNC Health and UNC School of Medicine. In his role, he developed and implemented strategies shaping public policy and legislation for a health care system with 19 hospitals, more than 900 clinics, 3,000 physicians and more than 40,000 employees.

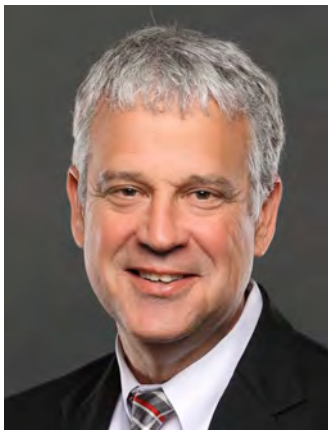
Howell has a long record of service to North Carolina, the UNC System and NC State University. Prior to his time with UNC Health, Howell acted as NC State's vice chancellor for external affairs, partnerships and economic development from 2018 to 2023, and as assistant to the chancellor for external affairs from 2006 to 2016. He was also senior vice president for external affairs with the University of North Carolina System.

His work in building and managing relationships and economic partnerships has enhanced both local and global engagement and created new jobs and investments for the state of North Carolina.

A native of Shelby, N.C., Howell received his bachelor's degree in political science from NC State and served as student body president during his senior year. He earned his law degree from the University of North Carolina-Chapel Hill and later served as a legal clerk on the N.C. Court of Appeals.

Returning to his alma mater, Howell takes the helm of a forward-looking university leading the nation in biotechnology, nanotechnology, proteomics, nonwoven textiles and other fields of study – such as food safety, biomedical research and artificial intelligence – that affect the health and livelihoods of people across the globe.

With deep expertise in driving economic investment and growth, he'll strengthen NC State's role as a frontier research university to keep North Carolina competitive in the most important fields of our future.



BOO CORRIGAN

MCMURRAY FAMILY DIRECTOR OF ATHLETICS

Trust. Accountability. Passion. Empathy.

In his seven years since he arrived at NC State, McMurray Family Director of Athletics Boo Corrigan has worked to develop a department culture built around those core values. In other words, a culture that believes every wolf strengthens the Pack.

That culture has not only taken root, but it has flourished. Four team national championships, a league-leading 22 ACC team titles, two trips to the Final Four and two to the College World Series, as well as six straight top-25 finishes in the Learfield Directors' Cup: all evidence of the unprecedented success that NC State Athletics has enjoyed under Corrigan's leadership.

With a No. 22 finish in the 2025-26 Directors' Cup ranking, six of the seven top-25 finishes in school history have all come under Corrigan's leadership. The Wolfpack's 22 ACC team titles since he arrived on campus are more than any other league school during that time frame, and Wolfpack student-athletes have won 18 individual national titles in five different sports.

In the past seven years, women's cross country won four NCAA national team titles and six straight ACC championships. Two other squads - women's tennis in 2023 and men's tennis in 2025 - played in the national finals. Wrestling won six consecutive conference titles, and women's basketball won three to go along with four Sweet 16 appearances and a trip to the 2024 Final Four. Men's swimming also captured three straight league titles. Baseball has taken two trips to the College World Series, football has qualified for six straight bowl games, and women's tennis brought home the first ACC title in the history of the program and then added another in 2026. In 2025, Gymnastics won the first ACC championship since the sport was reestablished as a league sport.

NC State's most recent Graduation Success Rate (GSR) is the highest it's ever been at 94%, and the Wolfpack has either matched or bettered its all-time high every year under Corrigan's leadership.

In 2023-24, NC State became only the third school ever to send its men's and women's basketball teams to the Final Four and its baseball team to the CWS in the same year, while the Wolfpack was one of just eight Division I schools to advance to the postseason in all of its "Big Four" sports: football, men's basketball, women's basketball and baseball.

Corrigan was named a Cushman & Wakefield Athletics Director of the Year in 2022. It marked the second time in six years that Corrigan was honored, as he was named a 2017 Athletic Director of the Year by the National Association of Collegiate Directors of Athletics while he was the leader at Army. In 2026, he was named to Business North Carolina's Power List, which showcases the state's most influential private-sector leaders.

In January of 2021, Corrigan was selected as a member of the College Football Playoff Selection Committee, beginning a three-year term. He served as chairman of that prestigious group in 2022 and did so again in 2023.

Prior to his time in Raleigh, Corrigan presided over one of the most successful eras in Army's history, setting milestones and records in competition and in the classroom. He oversaw a program that claimed 20 Patriot League regular-season or tournament championships and sent 14 teams to their respective NCAA postseason competitions.

Corrigan oversaw an unprecedented increase in athletic fundraising during his time at West Point, including a 30 percent increase in membership for the Army A Club, a 200 percent increase in money raised and significant growth of the Athletic Department's endowments.
No stranger to the Atlantic Coast Conference, Corrigan also had stints at Duke and Florida State. His resume also includes stops at Notre Dame and the U.S. Naval Academy.

Corrigan spent much of his youth in Charlottesville while his father, the late Gene Corrigan, served as Virginia's athletic director from 1971 to 1981. Gene Corrigan was later the athletics director at Notre Dame and commissioner of the ACC.

Corrigan is married to the former Kristen Aceto, who played field hockey and lacrosse at the University of Virginia and also earned a master's degree from the school. The couple has three children: Finley, Tre and Brian.

He received his bachelor's degree in economics from the University of Notre Dame in 1990 and earned a master's degree in education from Virginia Commonwealth University in 2013.

WOLFPACK RING OF HONOR

40 DICK CHRISTY
Halfback

At NC State: Scoring all 29 of NC State's points, Dick Christy earned the Wolfpack its first Atlantic Coast Conference Championship in a 29-26 win in the Pack's season-finale at South Carolina on Nov. 23, 1957. Christy earned first team All-America recognition from the Associated Press and United Press International for his efforts that season. He ended his career in '57 holding 14 NC State records and four ACC records. Nearly 40 years later, Christy's jersey was retired on Nov. 8, 1997 in a game against Maryland. He died in a car accident in 1965 and was named to the ACC's Silver Anniversary Team in 1978.
As a Professional: Christy played five seasons in the NFL, splitting time with the Pittsburgh Steelers (1958), Boston Patriots (1960) and the New York Titans (1961-63). He was selected to play in the 1962 AFL All-Star game and led the AFL and NFL in punt returns in 1961 and 1962 with 21.3 and 16.7 yards per return, respectively. In 1962, he was named his team's MVP, when he led the squad in rushing, punt returns and kickoff returns.

18 ROMAN GABRIEL
Quarterback

At NC State: A two-time All-American, Roman Gabriel starred at quarterback for NC State in the early 1960s and finished his career holding virtually every Wolfpack passing record. An academic All-American, Gabriel saw his jersey retired and presented to him by Governor Terry Sanford on Jan. 20, 1962 at halftime of an NC State-Maryland basketball game in Reynolds Coliseum. A first-round draft pick by the Los Angeles Rams, he went on to a distinguished professional career.
As a Professional: Gabriel played 15 seasons in the NFL, splitting time with the Los Angeles Rams (1962-72) and the Philadelphia Eagles (1973-77). He was named the NFL's Most Valuable Player in 1969 and earned Pro Bowl spots in 1967, 1968, 1969 and 1970. He was the MVP of the 1970 Pro Bowl. He ranked as the Rams' all-time passing leader with 22,223 yards and 154 touchdowns (1,705 com./3,313 att.) and threw for 7,221 yards and 45 touchdowns (661 com./1,185 att.) with the Eagles. In 1973, he led the NFL with 3,219 yards and 23 touchdown passes. He still holds the Rams' career records for touchdown passes (154) and passes attempted (3,313), and ranks third in passing yards (22,223), and passes completed (1,705). Gabriel was inducted into the College Football Hall of Fame in 1989.

77 DENNIS BYRD
Defensive End

At NC State: Dennis Byrd was a dominating presence for the Wolfpack's famed "White Shoes" defense, competing on the defensive line for NC State from 1965-67. An adept pass rusher who combined size, agility, strength and a desire for hitting, Byrd was the Pack's first consensus All-American, earning honors in 1967. He was also the first three-time All-ACC player in league history, earning accolades all three years that he lettered. As a junior, he led the voting for All-ACC lineman and after his senior campaign, participated in four college all-star games. Byrd, who passed away in July of 2010, was inducted into the National Football Foundation's Hall of Fame in December of that year.
As a Professional: Byrd was a first-round draft pick of the Boston Patriots of the American Football League in 1968.

At NC State: A consensus All-American guard, Bill Yoest lettered for the Wolfpack from 1970-73 and was the recipient of the 1973 Jacobs Blocking Trophy. A Pittsburgh native, Yoest won All-America honors from the Associated Press, UPI, Football Writers, Football Coaches, NEA and Walter Camp that season. Yoest was selected for two postseason all-star games, the '74 Hula Bowl and the East-West Shrine Game, in which he was elected co-captain of the East squad. His No. 63 was retired at halftime of the North Carolina game, Sept. 27, 2003.
As a Professional: Yoest played a short stint with the Orlando Blazers of the World Football League and then returned to Raleigh, where he started a financial services business.

23 TED BROWN
Running Back

At NC State: Ted Brown is inarguably the greatest running back to play for NC State, if not in the Atlantic Coast Conference. A native of High Point, N.C., Brown rushed for a school and ACC record 4,602 yards from 1975-78. He scored 51 touchdowns during his career, which stood as the top mark in ACC history until 2005. His jersey was retired during pregame ceremonies prior to his final home game on Nov. 18, 1978 against Duke. He was a first-round draft pick of the Minnesota Vikings where he enjoyed an all-star career.
As a Professional: Brown starred for eight seasons in the NFL as a member of the Minnesota Vikings squad from 1979-86. He scored 53 career touchdowns (40 rushing and 13 receiving). His 4,546 career rushing yards ranks third in the history of that franchise. Brown was inducted into the College Football Hall of Fame in 2013.

51 JIM RITCHER
Center

A two-time consensus All-American, Ritcher won the award as a Wolfpack senior in 1979, when he literally cleared the way for NC State to win the ACC Championship. Still an active member of the Wolfpack family, Ritcher, whose sons John and Harrison both played for NC State, thrived in the NFL for 16 years, playing in four Super Bowls with the Buffalo Bills. Ritcher's No. 51 was retired on Feb. 8, 1987. He was inducted into the College Football Hall of Fame in 1998.
As a Professional: A first-round draft choice in 1980, Ritcher went on to play 16 seasons in the NFL, splitting time with the Buffalo Bills (1980-93) and the Atlanta Falcons (1994-95). An All-Pro choice in 1986, 1988, and 1990, Ritcher played in the 1992 and 1993 Pro Bowls. He also played in four Super Bowls with Buffalo and played in more games than any other Buffalo Bill (225). He was inducted into the Buffalo Hall of Fame in 2005 and was the recipient of the Gerald R. Ford Legends Award in 2009.

81 TORRY HOLT
Wide Receiver

At NC State: Torry Holt was a human highlight film for NC State from 1995-98, and culminated his career by being named a consensus All-American. Holt rewrote the Wolfpack record books, setting single game, single season and career records in almost every receiving category. He also set an ACC record with 3,379 reception yards for his career. The two-time All-ACC performer was named the ACC Player of the Year and Offensive Player of the Year following his senior campaign, and was also a finalist for the Biletnikoff Award, honoring the nation's top wide receiver. He was inducted into the NFF College Football Hall of Fame in December of 2019.
As a Professional: Holt was a first-round draft pick of the Saint Louis Rams in 1999, the sixth selection overall, and made the Pro Bowl seven times. He won a Super Bowl ring during his rookie campaign, and in the process set Super Bowl rookie records with seven catches and 109 receiving yards. He was the first player in NFL history to record five straight seasons with 1,300 receiving yards, and he was the fifth-fastest in NFL history to 5,000 yards and fourth-fastest to 500 career receptions. Holt played with the Jacksonville Jaguars in 2009 and the New England Patriots in 2010 before announcing his retirement. He served as an analyst for the NFL Network after retirement, started the Holt Foundation to benefit kids whose parents have cancer and owns a construction business in Raleigh.

17 PHILIP RIVERS
Quarterback

At NC State: The 2003 ACC Player of the Year, Philip Rivers started all 51 games at quarterback for the Wolfpack over his four years, setting an NCAA record at the time. Rivers rewrote the record books for both NC State and the ACC in every passing and total offense category. Rivers ended up the second-leading passer in NCAA history with 13,494 career passing yards and 13,582 career yards of total offense and finished tied for fifth in NCAA history with 95 career TD passes. The Athens, Ala., native capped off a marvelous career with a stellar senior season in which he led the nation with a 72.0 completion percentage and 170.49 pass efficiency rating. Rivers became the first QB in ACC history, the seventh in NCAA history, to throw for 3,000 yards in three different seasons. The MVP of the 2003 Tangerine Bowl with his fifth 400-yard passing day of the year, Rivers was also named the MVP of the Senior Bowl. His jersey, number 17, was retired before his final home game, Nov. 22, 2003.
In the Professional Ranks: A first-round draft choice, Rivers was drafted by the New York Giants with the fourth pick in 2004 and was traded to the San Diego Chargers minutes later. He was selected to the Pro Bowl eight times, and was named the NFL Comeback Player of the Year in 2013 after he led the league in completion percentage (69.5%). In a 2018 game, he set a new NFL record with 25 consecutive completions and a 96.55% completion percentage in a game. He played the 2020 season for the Indianapolis Colts before retiring after 17 years in the NFL.

At NC State: Williams was the first player in ACC history to be selected as the first pick in the NFL draft, as he was taken as No. 1 by the Houston Texans in 2006. He was named a first-team All-American by Sports Illustrated in 2005 and was a second-team choice by Walter Camp after setting the State single-season tackles for loss (27.5) and sacks (14.5) records. A two-time All-ACC performer, he also held the school career records in both categories after his college career. His jersey, number 9, was honored during the home opener in the 2014 season.
As a Professional: Williams recorded 97.5 career sacks in his NFL career, and was named All-Pro three times (including first-team in 2014), and was also selected to four Pro Bowls. After being drafted No. 1 overall in the 2006 NFL Draft, Williams spent his first six seasons with the Houston Texans and then four with the Buffalo Bills. In 2016, Williams played for the Miami Dolphins. He was named the NFL Defensive Lineman of the Year in 2007 after recording 14 sacks.

*16 RUSSELL WILSON
Quarterback

At NC State: Wilson was the first quarterback in league history to earn first-team All-ACC honors as a freshman and also won the ACC Rookie of the Year award in 2008. He was a two-time Academic All-ACC performer and set an NCAA record for consecutive pass attempts without an interception with 379. He ranks in the top four in NC State career history in passing yards, pass completions, pass attempts, passing touchdowns, 300-yard passing games, total offense and touchdown responsibility. His jersey, number 16, was honored during the 2014 Spring Game.
As a Professional: From the time he joined the NFL as a third-round pick in 2012 until the end of the 2021 season, Russell

Wilson played two seasons for the Denver Broncos and is now with the Pittsburgh Steelers.

*9 BRADLEY CHUBB
Defensive End

At NC State: A unanimous first-team All-American as a senior, Chubb was also named the 2017 ACC Defensive Player of the Year and won the Bronko Nagurski Trophy and the Ted Hendricks Award. A first-team All-ACC choice, he set the NC State record for career tackles for loss (60) and sacks (26), he finished his senior season as the Power-5 leader in sacks and tackles for loss. His eight career fumbles forced tied for eighth in school history and as a junior, he led the FBS in tackles for loss and sacks at the end of the regular season. His jersey, number 9, was honored on Nov. 8, 2018 in a Thursday night home contest at Carter-Finley Stadium.

As a Professional: He was selected as the No. 5 pick in the 2018 NFL Draft by the Denver Broncos, NC State's first player taken in the first round since 2006. He started all 16 games as a rookie at outside linebacker, and finished with 12 sacks and 60 tackles on the season. He was named to the PFWA All-Rookie Team. He went on to earn Pro Bowl honors for the 2020 season. In 2022, he was traded to the Miami Dolphins.

BILL COWHER
Head Coach

At NC State: Bill Cowher's story began in 1975 when he arrived as a linebacker and became one of the Wolfpack's most outstanding defensive players. His 24 tackles in a single game (vs. South Carolina in 1977 and vs. Clemson in 1978) still rank as the second-highest marks in school history. He holds the Wolfpack single-season tackle record (195 in 1978) and ranks seventh on the career charts with 371 total stops.

As a Coach: Cowher was named the 15th coach in Steelers history on Jan. 21, 1992. In his 15 seasons as coach, the Steelers won eight division titles and advanced to the playoffs 10 times, participating in 21 playoff games. Those 21 playoff games included six appearances in AFC Championship Games. Cowher led the Steelers to two Super Bowls, earning the win over the Seattle Seahawks in 2006 - the Steelers' first Super Bowl victory in over 26 years. Cowher compiled an impressive overall record of 149 wins, 90 losses, and one tie during his regular-season coaching career, resulting in a winning percentage of .623. A two-time NFL Coach of the Year, Cowher finished his career as one of only six coaches in NFL history with at least seven division titles, and he joined Paul Brown as the only coaches in history to take their teams to the playoffs in each of their first six years as coach. In 2020 Cowher became the first former NC State player inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame.

He led the ACC in tackles twice during his NC State career (2020 and 2023) and was the leader in tackles for loss. He compiled 23 career double-figure tackle games. He was a finalist for the 2023 Nagurski Trophy,

As a Professional: Wilson was drafted in the third round by the Pittsburgh Steelers in 2024 and played in 34 games in his first two campaigns.

54 JOE THUNEY
Offensive Line

At NC State: The first Wolfpack offensive lineman to earn All-America honors since 1979, Joe Thuney was a first-team All-ACC performer. He played every single snap of the season versus ACC opponents (589) and did not allow a single sack from his left tackle spot in those contests. During his career, he started games at four of the five positions on the offensive line: LT, LG, RG, RT. He earned his degree from NC State prior to his junior campaign.

As a Professional: After being drafted in the third round by the New England Patriots, Thuney would become the first player in NFL history to start a Super Bowl in each of his first three years in the league. He started every game of his first season, won a Super Bowl ring and was named to the PFWA All-Rookie team. After winning two Super Bowls with the Patriots, Thuney signed with the Kansas City Chiefs in 2022, winning another Super Bowl in his first year. He was a first-team All-Pro performer in 2023 and won another Super Bowl ring (even though he didn't play in the game itself due to an injury) following another All-Pro season in 2024. In 2025 he was traded to the Chicago Bears, where he once again won All-Pro honors and earned the NFL's inaugural Protector of the Year award.

Nos. 9, 11, 16 and 54 will continue to be worn by standout players. Any player designated by the head coach to war those numbers will also wear a patch honoring Chubb, Williams or Wilson.*

NATIONAL SCHOLAR-ATHLETE TEAM/ WILLIAM CAMPBELL TROPHY FINALIST

In 2018, Ryan Finley became NC State's first player to be named to the prestigious National Football Foundation's National Scholar-Athlete Team. He was a finalist for the William V. Campbell Trophy®, which recognizes the country's top student-athlete based on academic success, football performance and exemplary community leadership.

As a finalist, Finley received an $18,000 postgraduate scholarship as a member of the class and was honored at the 61st NFF Annual Awards Dinner in New York City.

Finley was the only player in the FBS who had already earned a master's degree heading into the season and he had also earned a second postgraduate degree and was working towards a third.
